

SF Bay Area Collaborative Research Network

A partnership of community clinicians, practices and UCSF

SF Bay CRN eNews – Spring, 2019

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

Welcome the San Francisco Area Bay Collaborative Research Network (SFBayCRN) eNews. SFBayCRN facilitates primary health care practice-based research partnerships between researchers and clinical practice groups at UCSF, in the greater Bay Area, and beyond. We offer free initial consultations on practice-based research issues for our members. For more information about SFBayCRN, visit:

SFBayCRN 5th Annual Meeting Recap!

Check out our Twitter Feed and Presentations

On April 26th, we met at Presidio's Golden Gate Club to share, learn, and explore the expanding opportunities to work together. It was a gorgeous spring day, attended by over 200 UCSF and community-based stakeholders, with many outstanding presentations, including a guest appearance by Dean Talmadge King. Our meeting stimulated a very active discussion across social media with posts from several outspoken voices in practice-based research. If you missed our meeting, but want to view presentation slides, click here. And... Save the date! Friday, May 1st, 2020 will be the date of our next Annual Meeting!

Another Meeting You Will Not Want to Miss!

With, By, and For the People: A Symposium on Patient, Community and Stakeholder-Engaged Research at UCSF

Engagement with patients, community organizations, clinics, and other stakeholders such as public policy makers in all phases of the translational continuum results in better science that is more likely to improve health outcomes and advance health equity. Why is this? What are the elements of effective research partnerships? Hear directly from community partners, patient advisors, other stakeholders and academic collaborators about how and why research collaborations work and how UCSF can live up to its promise of leadership in this important and growing discipline. For more information, please email Erica.Wong@ucsf.edu.

Confirmed keynote speaker: Nina Wallerstein, PhD, University of New Mexico

This first ASPIRE* Symposium will explore these dynamic questions and more. Join the discussion! Save the date!

Farewell to the SFBayCRN Program Manager

James Rouse Iñiguez, MA, MS

This month the network says farewell to our Program Manager, James Rouse Iñiguez. James will be joining the UCSF Pacific AIDS Education and Training Center (PAETC) as their Unit Manager effective June 1st, 2019. We are indebted to James for his years of service and support for practice-based research in our community. We congratulate James on his promotion and wish him well in his future endeavors! We are excited that Erica Wong, who already works closely with our program, has agreed to assume his role on an interim basis.
